Church Flower & Cleaning Rota - April 2018

How lovely. By the time that you read this we shall be back into a warm church, but then, of course, we shall have to commence cleaning and flowers once again.
I do hope that the new system of two weeks on at a time makes everything easier; we shall see!

Tuesday Club Steel Band

Because the first Tuesday in April is so close to Easter, we have organised something different. On Thursday April 19th, anyone who wants to have a go at making music out of steel drums is invited to South Perrott Village Hall between 4 pm and 5 pm.

We will receive instruction from Mike Hayes at a cost of £6 per person, and it should be fun!
For further details please contact me.

Tuesday Club meeting on 1st May

We are going to welcome Julie Hammon from Dorset AONB (Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty).

Getting out and about and walking in the Dorset countryside is good for our health. Julie will tell us about places to visit; And about a project called "Stepping into Nature" that is looking to support older people accessing the countryside - including those living with memory problems and their carers.

There will be lots of pictures of fantastic landscapes to see, and free publications on where to go.

We look forward to seeing many friends and neighbours in the village hall (Corscombe); 2.15 pm for a 2.30 pm start.

Corscombe & Halstock Community First Responders

When illness strikes, it is good to know that Responders are on hand to give immediate support whilst an ambulance is in transit.

We attended 41 call-outs over the last 12 months - an average of one call every 9 days.

We are now down to 5 active members. We cover as much of the week as we can, but we need more members so we can extend the times we are on duty - without any one member doing more than they are comfortable with.

Call Chris Chapman on 01935 891015 or Dick Thorne on 01935 891847. We would be delighted to explain how it all works and answer your questions - without obligation so no need to worry that asking questions would pressure you into joining
